QUEENS DISTRICT ATTORNEY RICHARD A. BROWN NAMES
ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY AISHA S. GREENE AS RECIPIENT OF THE 15th ANNUAL HAL MILLER WEINSTEIN MEMORIAL AWARD

Queens District Attorney Richard A. Brown today announced that Assistant District Attorney Aisha S. Greene of Cambria Heights, has been named the recipient of the Queens District Attorney's Office's fifteenth annual Hal Miller Weinstein Memorial Award.

In a ceremony held today in the District Attorney's Office, District Attorney Brown presented the award to Assistant District Attorney Greene. The award is given annually in honor of former Assistant District Attorney Hal Miller Weinstein who died tragically in a car accident in April 1992.

Among those present were the late Assistant District Attorney's uncle, Queens Supreme Court Justice Jeremy S. Weinstein, Supervising Judge of the Queens Civil Court, and his brother, Lloyd, who is also an attorney. Former Appellate Division Justice Moses M. Weinstein, Hal's grandfather, was out of town and could not be present. Also in attendance were members of the Class of 2005, as well as the Executive Staff of the District Attorney's Office. In addition, Aisha's parents, Reverend Alphonzo Greene and his wife, Darlene, her aunt, Cheryl Araujo, and godparents, Richard Hurley, Esq., and Shirley Harris, were in attendance.

District Attorney Brown said, "Each year this award is presented to a member of our first-year class who most exemplifies Hal Weinstein's spirit, enthusiasm and dedication to public service. Hal touched the lives of many of us here in this office. His warmth and friendship was felt by all of us. The professionalism demonstrated by Aisha Greene as well as her deep commitment to the office truly exemplify the spirit of Hal Weinstein."

Assistant District Attorney Greene is a life long resident of Cambria Heights, Queens. ADA Greene obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree in both Philosophy and Political Science magna cum laude, from Syracuse University in 2001, graduating in three years with a 3.71 grade point average. She was on the Dean's List every semester. She was elected to both Pi Sigma Alpha, the Political Science Honor Society, as well as Phi Eta Sigma, the national freshman honor society. A 2004 graduate of Columbia University School of Law, she was a member of the Executive Board of the Black Law Students Association, and was a tutor in the Harlem Tutorial Program. She was awarded Best Brief in the Frederick Douglass Moot Court Competition. Before joining the District Attorney's office in September 2005, ADA Greene was a Summer Associate during both law school summers with Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton and Garrison, LLP.

Assistant District Attorney Greene is assigned to the District Attorney's Domestic Violence Bureau and has also excelled in additional work assignments for the Criminal Court/Intake Bureau.

Previous recipients of the award are: John W. Kosinski (Class of 1991), Shawn Kerby (Class of 1992), Joseph K. Donovan (Class of 1993), Lisa Drury (Class of 1994), Kelly Cardany (Class of 1995), Shawn Clark (Class of 1996), Patricia Malloy (Class of 1997), Kristin Cocco and Gabriel Tapalaga (Class of 1998) and Courtney Goodloe (Class of 2000), Rosemary Chao (Class of 2001), Anthony Como and Tara Coughlin (Class of 2001), William R. King (Class of 2002), Jasmine Chang (Class of 2003) and Kristin J. Fraser (Class of 2004).
