This transitional continuing legal education course has been approved in accordance with the requirements of the Continuing Legal Education Board for a maximum of 15 credit hours, of which 1 credit hours can be applied toward the Ethics and Professionalism requirement, 6 credit hours can be applied toward the Professional Practice requirement and 8 credit hours can be applied toward the Skills requirement.

The faculty, course content and location of these sessions are subject to change. The dates and times are firm unless you are notified otherwise in advance. Every session will take a minimum of one hour but some may go longer. Attendance is mandatory for all ADA/CLAs in the Spring and Fall classes of 2018, except as noted above. Should you encounter any conflict with your bureau assignments, your priority, as per SEADA Quinn and EADA Saunders, is to attend the training session. If you have another assignment that conflicts with training, you must notify your EADA or Deputy EADA of the conflict and he or she will resolve the conflict with the Director of Trial Advocacy.
