

WE'RE HERE TO HELP.

If you become a victim of a crime, a scam, or illegal exploitation, you have the right to seek justice, regardless of your financial situation or immigration status. The Office of Queens District Attorney Melinda Katz is here to help.

Elder Fraud and Abuse

We are committed to ensuring a safe and secure environment for our senior citizens. If you or a senior you know has been a victim of fraud or financial exploitation, contact our Elder Fraud Unit at ElderFraud@queensda.org or 718-286-6578. If someone 60 years+ becomes a victim of abuse, neglect, or sexual misconduct, contact our Elder Abuse Project at ElderAbuse@queensda.org or 718-286-6562.

Housing and Worker Protection Bureau

If you or someone you know has been a victim of a housing scam, real estate fraud, wage theft, or unsafe workplace conditions, contact our Housing and Worker Protection Bureau at HousingWorkerProtection@queensda.org or call 718-286-6673.

Domestic Violence Bureau

If you or someone you know is experiencing domestic abuse, there are resources available. Call our 24/7 Domestic Violence Helpline at 718-286-4410. You'll have the option of connecting with our legal experts or partner service providers to help get you to safety.

Hate Crimes Bureau

We are dedicated to the safety of all Queens residents, regardless of race, religion, ethnicity, or whom they love. If you or someone you know has experienced a hate or bias-motivated crime, call our Hate Crimes Bureau at 718-286-7010.

DA's Office of Immigrant Affairs

Immigration issues bring unique challenges to the criminal justice system. Our Office works diligently with immigrants and international visitors to ensure they understand the legal system and their rights. Call us at 718-286-6690 or email OIA@queensda.org. Translation services are available.
